CLASS DESCRIPTION

The choreography will be a mixture of urban hip hop and controlled chaos, among other things, and will be taught at a fairly fast pace - but you will be laughing in exhilaration by the end of it! Remember to bring a great attitude, smile, dancing shoes and your groove!

ABOUT RORY

Inspired and mentored by his older cousin Henry, Rory began his passion for dance as an adolescent. Today, Rory's passion has fostered into both a talent and career that has enabled him to teach and dance all around the San Francisco Bay Area. In 2004, Rory began his professional venture with dance training and performing with Booftroop Dance Company. During Rory's two years with Booftroop, the team accumulated an impressive list of accolades including 1st place at 2006's Pump It Up Competition, 2006's Best of the Bay Competition and 2005's Hot Import Daze as well as 3rd place at Battlefest 2006. He has also danced in a variety of shows and venues most notably at the Cow Palace as a closing act for Def Jam recording artist Christina Milian during LIVE SF 2006. Additionally Rory has appeared in a music video and co-choreographed a children's production that premiered in December of 2007.

Since 2002, Rory has choreographed and taught Hip Hop dance classes for various studios, programs and teams. He first began teaching children's dance classes for the City of San Jose and has also taught for Creative Learning through Arts and Performance (CLAP), NorCal Studios and Yahoo! Dance. Currently Rory teaches hip hop, breakdancing and street jazz classes for children and adults at Studio 10 Dance and other local studio's in the Bay.

Rory's training and speciality lies in hip hop but he is also proficient in breakdancing, house and freestyle. In addition to dancing and teaching, Rory works as a 6th grade basketball coach and an after-school program leader at Joseph George Middle school in San Jose as well as an event coordinator for Cool Kids Entertainment. In 2008, Rory has been tapped to choreograph a tour for an up and coming Bay Area Hip Hop artist and plans to complete his Associates Degree to transfer to San Jose State University where he will be the first member in his family to attend a university! Come be inspired to dance.
